The Americanism Museum in the House of the Temple in Washington, D.C., is dedicated to the Masonic principles of personal, social and intellectual freedom so important to our nation. It contains a number of captivating artifacts and relics from throughout American history. Here are displayed relics of the colonial and other periods of American history. For instance, there is a foundation stone from the White House which dates back to the original construction. Discovered during renovation started in 1948, the stone bears Masonic markings and is authenticated by a letter from former President Harry S. Truman, 33°. The collection also includes a replica life mask of President Abraham Lincoln and a lodge lantern used by a Union Army Lodge during the American Civil War, President Truman's 33rd Degree Collar and various items from NASA that traveled to the moon.

News of the Valley

In January we installed our new officers for 2016. The new Heads of the Bodies are Michael Schaller, 32°, Venerable Master for the Lodge of Perfection, David Del Dosso, 32°, Wise Master for the Chapter Rose Croix, Ill.: Jerry Gonzales, 33°, Commander of the Council of Kadosh, and Harold Bogner, 32° KCCH, Master of Kadosh for the Consistory. We congratulate them and ask you to give them your support during the year.

Our February stated meeting included recognition of our Sweethearts, each of whom received a red rose. We also had an interesting presentation by our Orator, Raul Cifuentes, 32° KCCH, on Feminine Symbols in Masonry.

We are currently gearing up for a major push on the VMAP program, to improve our Valley and build our membership. Please talk up the Scottish Rite in your Blue Lodges and among your Masonic brethren. We have informational booklet available to distribute to prospective members.

From the PR's Quill

Jerry E. Gonzales, 33°

Greetings to our Scottish Rite family!

I hope all have survived the crazy weather we have been having, but it seems things are warming up a bit. Our Valley is off to a good start for the year, with a fresh and strong group of leaders, who are working on programs and events that should be of interest to everyone. The Calendar is out and if anyone has not received it, please feel free to e-mail me and I will be happy to send you one.

With March approaching, we have our normal meeting and our Remembrance and Renewal Dinner program. In April in addition to the normal dinner meeting we are planning to do Degree conferrals on the 23 of April. We have one petition from last year, and would like to see a few more. I believe I may have two or three interested Master Masons, but I will encourage all of you to go out and visit lodge, especially for Third Degrees, as this is where our future members will come from. If we expect our Valley to continue on it is imperative that we work on membership.

We are again working on our VMAP program which I will be speaking about at dinner in March. We also have a 2016 Scottish Rite Workshop on April 1 & 2, in Phoenix, Arizona which at least two or three of our officers will be attending. This Work Shop in 2014 implemented the initial concepts for the current VMAP program, and at the coming workshop will meet with Scottish Rite Masons from around the country to see what improvements can be made. I am hopeful our officers will learn new and exciting ideas to improve our Valley in both attendance and membership.

I would also like to remind everyone that we do have our Adopt-A-Highway Clean Up, scheduled for the Saturday following the Dinner meeting. They meet at the 126 café in the morning and then spend an hour or so picking up trash along the 126 freeway. This is a good time for some Saturday morning fellowship as well as showing our support to the community. If you are a regular, I thank you; if you have not been, I encourage you to come out and support your Valley's efforts.

One final note: on March 29th the Officers are planning a social cigar smoking event. The plan is to try to do something the last Tuesday of every month, so please try to give these new ideas a try, you might just find you enjoy them.

I thank you all for your continued support, and guidance. Please join us for Dinners and special events. I would also ask you to please offer your support and assistance both in Degrees and everyday functions.

God Bless, and Hope to See You at Dinner!

Lodge of Perfection

Michael Schaller, 32°, Venerable Master

Welcome Brothers of our Ventura Scottish Rite Family. Thank you so much for your participation in our Special Valentine's Day dinner. We hope the Ladies enjoyed their special individual roses, and we hope the brothers enjoyed the ladies being invited for free. It was truly our pleasure.

We wish to give a special thanks to Sir Knight Raul Cifuentes for his wonderful presentation on the symbolism of Freemasonry with respect to the women. I believe there was something to be learned by all that attended.

Hopefully this year we can encourage all the brothers to promote our Ventura Scottish Rite Family to our own Blue Lodges. Whenever we raise a Master Mason in our own Lodge, it would be such a great time to invite those new Master Masons to visit our Lodge and enjoy dinner on us, so that we might show them more of what we are all about.

I appreciate the honor you have bestowed upon me, and would appreciate your help in growing our Lodge.

I am personally inviting you to a Men's Night Out we are putting together, scheduled for March 29, 2016 at 6:30, being held at the Old Oaks Cigar and Wine Co., 3006 Thousand Oaks Blvd., Thousand Oaks. Come by and enjoy an evening of fun, cigars and good old fashioned socializing. (See page 5)

I am looking forward to seeing as many brothers as possible at our next meeting where we are going to celebrate our 25 and 50 year members.

“The price of success is hard work, dedication to the job at hand, and the determination that whether we win or lose, we have applied the best of ourselves to the task at hand.” —Vince Lombardi

2016 is here and it is time to make New Year's resolutions. May 21, 2015, will mark our fifth annual Celebrating the Craft (CTC) webathon. From 6:00 PM–Midnight EST we will showcase some of the best talent in the Southern Jurisdiction as well as provide information on our philanthropies in a fun, educational, and exciting show. In an effort to increase awareness and support for Scottish Rite philanthropies, the 2016 CTC will focus on RiteCare Scottish Rite Childhood Learning Program (SRCLP) as well as raising funds to support the House of the Temple.

For the past five years, members from across the world have pledged their time and resources to help local Orient philanthropies and the House of the Temple's Rebuilding the Temple Campaign. This year our goal is 100% participation from every Brother, Valley, and Orient.

What is CTC?

For those who don't know, Celebrating the Craft — CTC for short — is an annual webathon which supports our RiteCare Scottish Rite Childhood Language Program and our Rebuilding the Temple Campaign. Donations can be split 50-50 between local 501(c)(3) Orient Philanthropies and the House of the Temple Historic Preservation Foundation. CTC has grown to be the largest fundraising event in the Southern Jurisdiction! This would not be possible without the support of individual brethren. No gift is too small ... or too large! Thousands of brethren donating five dollars each are just as vital to the success of the program as those that can make a $100,000 gift. Indeed, many large donors wait to see what level of participation there is by the general membership before they will make a commitment of a five-to-six figure gift or more. By your Valley participating in CTC you also are earning credits towards several requirements in the VMAP program.

What Can You Do?

There are approximately 160,000 Scottish Rite members in the Southern Jurisdiction. If each brother gave just $5 we would raise $800,000. However, donating money isn't the only way you can be an active participant for CTC. Volunteering your time is another valuable and rewarding way to help support our Rebuilding the Temple Campaign. Here are some ideas for how you can participate in CTC:

- Tune in to CTC and participate by watching the webathon live.
- Make a gift. Remember: no gift is too small ... or too large!
- If your Valley has a scheduling conflict, begin raising funds now and have an officer call in live during CTC.
- Create a Facebook page for CTC to update your friends and family throughout the webathon.
- Follow or participate in our social media campaign by using #CTC2016 or #SRHT2016. Using #CTC2016 and #SRHT2016 to help promote our events is a simple way we can all spread the news and be active participants in #CTC2016.

Learning from Experience

Celebrating the Craft has become both a personal and community event for Illustrious Bro. Sam Graziano, Jr., 33° and Janice Graziano. Residing in the Valley of Phoenix, the Graziano Family has been among the most active participants for CTC.

Life can be joyous or disappointing. A lot of this depends on your perspective and how you look at the ups and downs of the events that happen to you. So the question is— will you celebrate with us on May 21 and help raise funds for our philanthropies or will you look at this as a just another obstacle to cross? The decision you make will affect our philanthropies, our membership and our morale. I hope you will choose to Celebrate the Craft with us and join in taking a positive step forward for Scottish Rite Freemasonry.

The Habit Poem

I am your constant companion.

I am your greatest helper or heaviest burden.

I will push you onward or drag you down to failure.

I am completely at your command.

Half of the things you do you might as well turn over to me and I will do them – correctly and quickly.

I am easily managed – you must be firm with me.

Show me exactly how you want something done

And after a few lessons, I will do it automatically.

I am the servant of great people,
And Alas, of all failures as well.

Those who are great, I have made great.

Those who are failures, I have made failures.

I am not a machine though
I work with the precision of a machine plus the intelligence of a person.

You may run me for profit or run me ruin –

It makes no difference to me.

Take me, train me, be firm with me,
and

I will place the world at your feet.

Be easy with me and I will destroy you.

Who am I? I am Habit.

Here are 9 tips for developing better habits:

More than half of adults make New Year's resolutions each year. Unfortunately, many give up after a few weeks because they have not turned their goals into habits. Whether you want to lose weight, save for a home or eat more vegetables, adopting good habits is sure to help you reach your goals. Here are a few tips to keep you on track this year:

1. Get Motivated.

Why do you want to adopt the habit? How will your life improve once you develop this habit? What will happen if you don't? These three questions will help you streamline your goal and maintain motivation when you need it the most. If you are a visual person, write down your answers and post them where you will read them daily.

- 2. Start Small
Lasting habits take time to develop. Start by setting small goals that will eventually lead you to accomplishing your end result. By focusing on manageable changes at the beginning of your transformation, habits are more likely to become automatic.
- 3. Set reminders
It is easy to fall off track when you are in the process of adopting a new habit. Consistency is key, and setting a reminder will help you build good habits.
- 4. Replace a bad habit
If you want to kick a bad habit, it helps to replace it with a better one. Trying to quit eating sugary snacks? Keep carrot sticks or nuts nearby so when the urge to snack hits, you are less tempted to reach for candy or other sugary treats.
- 5. Get others on board
Tell people about the habit you are trying to adopt. The more people you tell, the more accountable you will feel. And who knows? They may even become inspired to adopt a new habit themselves.
- 6. Have realistic expectations
Changes don't happen overnight – they happen over several weeks and months of consistent action. Remember that achieving results only comes when you create consistency.

- 7. Do it for 30 Days
Studies show it takes 30 days to form a habit. Stay committed to your habit for a full 30 days. If it hasn't become automatic by then, try to pinpoint the challenges you are experiencing so you can try again.
- 8. Take on one habit at a time
Although you may feel motivated to revamp your life and change several habits at once, doing so may prevent you from adopting any of them. Focus on one good habit at a time. Once it becomes routine, take on another new habit.
- 9. Reward yourself for a job well done!
A small reward will keep you motivated, especially on days when it is tough to stay on track. Think about how you will reward yourself ahead of time so you have something to look forward to. *

I would like to thank the members of the Valley of Ventura Scottish Rite for the honour to serve you as the Master of Kadosh. I found this article on habits and thought what a great motivation to help us as we start a new year in so many ways.
